

"That is the story. Do you think there is any way of making them believe it?" (Plato, 380BC)

The Bergen Bugle

FINAL

Vol. 1 Issue 18

www.bergenbugle.blogstream.com

Friday January 27, 2006

FREE

President Recruits Hip Hop Youth

By Ernbo Flemmerton
Bugle Staff Writer

At Alabama Dinner 'N Speech AP

The President, in a surprise appearance at the Martin Luther King Community Center in Gladstone, Alabama, rapped for the young audience in a bid to recruit youth to his party.

Halfway through his set, however, at the conclusion of his own "Yo, Yo, Dee Mockruh Cee," he wrenched his back while busting a move and had to be hustled out by his Secret Service contingent, who were all dressed similarly.

Speaking later from Air Force One, the President remarked how down with it he was personally. "The Dubya-Man was in the house", he said, referring to the good

[see Ice, Ice, Maybe?, Page A10]

CONCERT-GOING DRUG USERS IN JEOPARDY Long Term Permanent Effects

By Ed Coonce
Bugle Staff Writer

A scientific survey of 734 shmutz using concert-goers has revealed one of the more insidious side effects of the illegal substance. According to Dr. Reginald Sandersin of the Shmutz Research

Digiteller Corp. CEO

NEW NASA MARS MISSION Chimp/Human Hybrid Pilot To Lead Expedition

By Marston Tidwell
Bugle Staff Writer

The National Aeronautic and Space Administration has announced the promotion of Charlie XB37C.2 to commander of the first manned...er chimped,.. flight to Mars.

The new commander is recently repatriated from the Outland Institute, and has been trained in celestial navigation, quantum mechanics, extra-atmospheric safety procedures, and copyright law.

"From our perspective, he's the ideal candidate", says Professor Robert Wagenmeister, NASA SubHuman Resources Director.

"Charlie, being a hybrid, has the strength of his simian genes, the intelligence of an advanced scientific researcher, and he doesn't have a girl friend."

Since the journey to Mars will require almost eight months to navigate, Charlie will be sleeping a lot of the time. When asked about the upcoming flight, Charlie would only say, "It'll be a chance for me to catch up on movies. I'm only up to Bridge On The River Kwai, and I'm just now getting into the seventies."

"Charlie is still learning about pop culture, and wants to write about his experiences, says Professor Wagenmeister.

Institute, when dosage occurs at higher levels during a Willie Nelson concert, the results are disfiguring and permanent.

"Cognitive skills drop immediately to the average level of a thirteen year old, the eyes cross, tooth decay appears rapidly, and subjects who drove to the concert in a Toyota Prius, for example, leave confused, looking for a Ford or Chevy pickup," explained Dr. Sandersin.

"We became alarmed when Doug Frankenheiser, CEO of Digiteller Corporation, wandered into his own office two months ago asking for a job application.

"We thought he was in Arruba, and were shocked at his appearance as he

[see Let This Be A Lesson, Page A5]

Current NASA Photo. Bruce Lobrow

[see Humanless Exploration, Page A3]

INSIDE

NATION

Congress' Unintended Break
RNC locks Senate, House doors. We don't need no stinkin' Congress getting in our way", snarls Karl Rove. A7

SPORTS

NASCAR

Champion J.T. Burns not happy with judge's decision at Raceway Park, will appeal. Why can't I drive on three wheels if I want to? C1

ENTERTAINMENT

Scheduling Snafu

The International Fighting Cat Exhibition was mistakenly booked at the Forum the same time as the Chihuahua Obedience Trials. Bedlam ensues. D3

OBITUARY

Bluebone Hickenlooper

Popular children's program host, was known for "Don't Hit Your Brother" series, taught at Sorbonne. A21