

"That is the story. Do you think there is any way of making them believe it?" (Plato, 380BC)

Dwarf Bowling League in Turmoil Demand Better Benefits

By Nestor Quigman
Bugle Staff Writer

Militant Dwarves

UPI

The International Brotherhood of Little People and Bartenders struck several area nightspots Thursday, demanding higher wages and increased benefits. The popular Dwarf Bowling Association decried the action.

"They'll shut down our business, said Manly Bland, owner of Manley's Bowl 'N Beer. We rely on the income from dwarf bowling to keep us in the black, we're operating at a slim 3 percent profit margin now as it is".

Bland's statement was pooh poohed by Lew Lettleman, shop foreman for Dwarf Local 1312. "You can't trust that son of a

[see Ooh, I'm Scared, Page A7]

CZECH TATRA F6 RUNS ON SHMUTZ 300 Miles Per Gallon!

By Marston Tidwell
Bugle Staff Writer

Ford has quietly bought the unsold inventory of 20,000 black 1962 Tatra F6 sedans. They had been stored for over 40 years in a warehouse complex outside Prague. Engineers working in secret have converted the engines to run on shmutz that has been modified for maximum combustibility. The original low-rider suspensions have been retrofitted for a luxu ride, and

WE'RE TIRED OF BEING BOY-TOYS!

By Ernbo Flemmerton
Bugle Staff Writer

Actor and Talented Screenwriter Brothers Speak Out

North Bergen, UPI. -- Fed up with the endless all-night shmutz parties, the shameless march of willing females, and the overwhelming presence of paparazi into their daily lives, the Knaatz brothers, Andy and Harry, have expressed publicly their frustration with the pop culture spotlight.

Harry, the author of the screenplay for the late Slim Dillinger's "His Brother was His Sister", stormed into Hollywood on the tails of the movie's success.

Andy, who played the lead role in the Oscar-winning film, spoke on the record about the lifestyle changes that were thrust suddenly upon them. "Before I knew it, we were being asked to cocktail parties on cruise ships, Oprah chose Slim's book for her bookclub, and we contracted with Nike to do a workout video."

In November, the Knaatz Brothers made the cover of GQ. In an interview by Gloria Runfield, the magazine's fashion editor, they complained about the demands being placed upon them by their fans. "It seems like we Bose sound systems have been installed. The new nameplate is Retrorunner V4. "We hope to turn the profit corner with our forward-looking retro model concept", said Bill Ford.

Critics of the venture say Henry Ford would be turning over in his grave.

"The old man would have simply sold them to the Chinese, said Elmer Singleton,

'07 Ford RetroRunner V4 Courtesy FoMoCo

[see Either This or Bankruptcy, P A15]

L to R, Harry and Andy AP Photo

can't go anywhere without being recognized", decried Andy. "We just want our old lives back, back when we could just blend in, just everyday people,...nuthin' special".

[see Ordinary People, Page A3]

INSIDE

NATION

President Proposes Cure

President has outlined plan to open string of oil addiction clinics across country. Hummer owners to get priority treatment. A7

SPORTS

Boxer Lands in Prison

Zander "Clubfoot" Jones trial begins. Lawyer says client had no idea woman he punched in brawl was 86. C1

BUSINESS

Oil Prices are Killing Us

Oil prices "not likely to drop soon, or in the near future, or next year, or ever, so get used to it, says Dick Cheney. B3

OBITUARY

Innovator, Thinker

Aristotle Greenfeld, 89. Jewish philosopher invented Klezmer Bop, influenced Booty Boys and Joey Dee. A21